1. Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage. Then present your interpretation of its connotation in the context of the whole story it belongs to in a passage of about 4–6 sentences in length:

> "ANTIGONE
> It was not Zeus who made this proclamation;
> nor was it Justice dwelling with the gods below
> who set in place such laws as these for humankind;
> nor did I think your proclamations had such strength > that, mortal as you are, you could outrun those laws > that are the gods', unwritten and unshakable.
> Their laws are not for now or yesterday, but live > forever; no one knows when first they came to light."

— From Antigone by Sophocles, in the given textbook, p. 735.

2. Writing

Write an essay of about 1,400–1,800 words to argue for the following topic:

Transformation in "Bisclavret" by Marie de France.